

REQUEST FOR DONATIONS OF WORKS OF ART, ARTS-RELATED GIFT CERTIFICATES, AND OTHER ITEMS FOR THE SILENT AUCTION.

On Friday, October 22, 2010, New Jersey Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts, Inc. (NJVLA) will hold a fundraising event, FALL FOR THE ARTS, at the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey in Summit. We hope you will join us for an evening of live music, a silent auction including works of art and arts-related gift certificates, cocktails, and hors d'oeuvres. The event will honor Matthew Savare, Esq., from Lowenstein Sandler PC. Musical guests will include The Nick Pablo Thang, led by NJVLA Board President Nicholas Stevens, Esq.; Deborah Fennelly, Esq., NJVLA Board Vice-President; and David Maiullo, Music Director of The Bravo Alliance of Performing Artists and former client of NJVLA.

We are looking for artists to donate an existing piece or a new work. If you would like to donate a work of art, an arts gift certificate, or another item, please contact Executive Director Tracey I. Batt, Esq., at 856-963-6300 or director@njvla.org. If your donation can be mailed, please send it, along with a donation form, to NJVLA, P.O. Box 1520, Laurel Springs, NJ 08021.

It's your move – NJVLA needs your support!

NJVLA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and registered New Jersey charity that provides pro bono (that means free!) legal services to the New Jersey Arts Community. Volunteer lawyers assist artists and arts and cultural organizations with legal issues such as contracts, copyright, trademark, landlord/tenant, real estate, tax, employment, organization formation, and much more. NJVLA also provides educational programs on a variety of arts-related legal topics.

Help us continue to provide free legal services to the thriving arts and cultural community in the great Garden State.
